Japan domestic (Company N's) assembly line	Production will be carried out by adding an item of the domestic (Company N's) assembly line to the Malaysia factory assembly line (*). ※ Existing line that assembles the same series.	Although the production equipment will be changed, there will be no change for the production process or management method. We have the existing equipment which has produced the item with different pin number. We will carry out a necessary evaluation. Since the change is not for the contact or case, a difference in appearance will be the font and position of the lot stamp mark. (see attached sheet)
