

Product End of Life (EOL) Notification

January 01, 2017

Steinel America Inc. is committed to providing the highest quality products and services to our distributors and end users. As a manufacturer, we strive to bring our customers the highest quality and technologically advanced products.

The XX10 and XX00 series of Steinel heat tools has reached the end of its life cycle and is being replaced with a newer technology of heat tools which will be the XX20 series. Effective as of the date of this letter, the XX10 and XX00 series of Steinel heat tools has been discontinued. Steinel America Inc. will continue to offer the XX10 and XX00 Series of heat tools until December 31, 2017 unless the current stock is depleted before the December 31, 2017 deadline. Steinel America Inc. will continue to provide repair / replacement parts for the XX10 and XX00 series heat tools until December 31, 2018.

The HG 5000 E, HB 1750, HG 350 ESD and the UltraHeat line (SV 800, SV 803 and SV 750) will remain with our current XX20 line.

We look to newer technology in our products providing greater efficiency in your heat tool applications.
