To: HTC Fuse Holder Customers
Subject: End-of-Life Notice HTC-10M and HTC-65M

This bulletin is to advise you of our decision to discontinue manufacturing the following fuse holder part numbers:

HTC-10M
HTC-65M

There are no plans to offer alternative/replacement products for these two holders.

All orders placed to date for these part numbers will be fulfilled.

Future orders will be accepted until stocks are depleted.

Customers currently using these fuse holders should immediately assess future requirements and place orders against our remaining stock.

We appreciate your cooperation and understanding with our decision to cease manufacturing the fuse holders. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your local Cooper Bussmann Sales representative.
