

24 June 2016

Ref: VEH60 End of life notice

This notice is to advise you that the VEH60 range of products will no longer be available after October 1, 2016. We have replaced the VEH60 series with the new VEC65 range that was released in January of this year.

If you have any customers that are currently purchasing the VEH60 series they will need to be made aware of the situation and offered a last time buy. See the included list of customers that have purchased the product during the past two years. Note there are two sheets, 2015 and 2016.

All customer orders need to be received by October 1, 2016 so we will have time to process orders with the factory. All product will need to be shipped to customers by March 1, 2017.

If you have any questions, please contact feel free to contact me to discuss.

Best Regards
