Subject: End Of Life for AAD130, AAD130SD, AAD160 series Power Supplies

To: All TCA Distributors

Tamura Corporation of America has decided to announce the End of Life of the above series of AC/DC Switching Power Supplies.

The enactment of new Safety Regulations and the age of these power supplies is what have led us to this decision.

As of today, you have 30 days to place any more orders for these series.

This announcement does not include the AAD600S series of power supplies. These will be continued to be manufactured into 2017.

Please give us a call if you have any questions!

Best Regards,
