Reason for Discontinuation:

Phoenix Contact is committed to providing our customers with the best-in-class products and services. We strive to provide accurate product information and announce any product changes in a timely manner. For this reason we are contacting you regarding a necessary product obsolescence. We are implementing a new manufacturing process for our B-series HEAVYCON hood housings. Implementing the process requires a tooling change and therefore the original HEAVYCON housing design will become obsolete. The attached list describes the specific housings effected by the obsolescence. Please notice this list also includes replacement part information.
