

EOL Notice

JAE will no longer provide the WD Series due to old tooling and low demand. There are no direct replacement parts that will be made available. The closest alternate connector for computer docking applications is the WD2 Series. However, this is not mating or footprint compatible with the original WD Series which is now discontinued.

1. Applied Products:

WD-100S4V-VF-N-PE-T45

2. Reason for EOL:

Old tooling and low demand

3. Schedule:

Effective immediately
