PCN1091

Detailed Description of Change

IXYS Integrated Circuits Division (ICD), now part of Littelfuse, has changed the mold compound currently being used for the parts listed in Appendix 1. Epoxy mold compound Samsung SL-7300JX has been discontinued and is being replaced with Kyocera KE-300TS1 in the power RF components.

These changes are effective immediately. There is no impact on quality or reliability.

The PCN number assigned to this action is PCN1091 and must be referenced in any correspondence related to the change.
